Buddha and a Boat is the second of a trilogy I have been working on. In the first book Alice sails over to Fiji with her father and meets Cornelius, with whom she falls in love. In the first book I explore the way Alice mixes up the mystical and sexual. She is very narcissistic and creates fantasy... Read more

Leshan Giant Buddha is the main attraction in Leshan Giant Buddha Scenic Area, which was listed as the World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1996 together with Mount Emei. Located at the joint of Minjiang River, Dadu River and Qingyi River, Leshan Giant Buddha is sitting facing Leshan City across the river and it’s the largest cliff rock carving Maitreya Buddha statue in the world. First one is take a boat at Tieniumen Pier to Sun Island, which is a little isle facing the Giant Buddha and the distance between them is only about 500 meters, and the ticket for the boat is ¥1 per person. Sun Island is very popular among local people, and they love to barbecue and just drink tea on the island in good weather. Leshan Giant Buddha is a statue of Maitreya in sitting posture. In December, 1996, the location of the Buddha was included by UNESCO on the list of the World Heritage Sites. Where do I get tickets for the boat ride to see the Leshan Budha? Will the queue be very long? Answers (1). Answered by Chloe from DENMARK | Feb. 27, 2019 19:58. 0 0 Reply. You can take the boat from LS Tourist Cruise Terminal. Generally speaking, you won't wait for a long time in work days.
